3085 Meet Famous author Richard LeMieux

"Breakfast at Sally's" is street talk for breakfast at the Salvation Army. The author is Richard LeMieux, and he has experienced the good life, losing it all, typing the book manuscript on a typewriter at a park picnic table, and now having his work published not only in English but also in Korean! Gather people at your home at a mutually convenient time & Richard will join you to speak about his experiences. His story inspires, gives you a first hand account of what it's like to be homeless, and gives insight into the homeless community in Seattle. This would be of great interest of anyone interested in understanding homelessness & Richard is an example of how, with some help, this negative cycle can be broken.
